

CAROLYN MCGUIRE (OBEDIENCE)

Carolyn started training in 1995 with her families first dog, a Golden Retriever, Taffy. Taffy earned her Canine Good Citizen title and was a registered Therapy Dog. Her next two dogs were accomplished obedience dogs, Kylee, her Novice A dog, earned a Utility Dog Excellent 7, Obedience Master 2, Graduate Open, & Rally Novice titles. Kody earned a Utility Dog Excellent 8, Obedience Master 8, Beginner Novice, Graduate Novice, Graduate Open, & Rally Excellent titles. Both Kylee and Kody were OTCH pointed and earned a number of placements during their obedience careers. Her current dog, Keeper, at 2 years old has earned his Beginner Novice, Graduate Novice, Companion Dog Excellent, Graduate Open & Rally Novice titles. He is well underway for his obedience career.

In 2013 Carolyn started teaching dog obedience for a local dog club. She has also done an extensive amount of work with obedience trials, holding positions of obedience trial chairperson, committee member, chief ring steward, and ring steward. She has been and currently judges many obedience fun matches.

Her experience includes working with pet parents who would like to have an obedient family pet, and obedience and rally competitors who want to learn and improve their skills for competition.
